Vineyard: We practice a traditional reasoned viticulture: planting grass between the rows in order to control the vigour of the plant, limitation of the number of bunches, soil tillage. Thanks to this work, Jean hasn't used any products for grey mould over the last three years.

Terroir:

- Les Rimonets : 20 years old vines. Loamy sandy soils on clayey gravel.
- Les Coudereaux : 20 years old vines. Sandy loam on orange clayey gravel.
- Chaumoux : 40 years old vines. Clayey gravel settled on marly shell limestone.
- Les Nouzats : 20 and 60 years old vines planted on red sand terraces.
- Le Buisson Pouilleux : young vines on clayey gravel and colluvial soils.

Vintage : Vintage 2014 : a marvelous fall !

Winegrowers don't always complain and can even be very happy!

After a cool and humid summer during which we had to fight mildew, a incredible fall, sunny with cool nights, brought the grapes to an exceptional ripeness. Great wines are awaiting in our cellars.

Vinification:

- Each plot is kept separate to identify the wines by their terroir
- Low pressure pneumatic pressing
- Temperature controlled fermentations
- Ageing on fine lees with bâtonnage
- First bottling in January 2015
- Cuvée of 62 000 bottles

Tremblay blend : 75% 20 years old vines 25% old vines between 40 an 60 years old.

Packaging: 6 x 75 cL box, 12 x 75 cL box, 12 x 37.5 cL box

Keeping: Should be opened within 5 years to enjoy the freshness and fruitiness of Sauvignon blanc. But you can forget it in your cellar for a little longer. Vertical tastings proved that white Loire wines can be kept up to 10 years.

To enjoy with seafood and oysters which have the right salinity to fully reveal this Cuvée.
