

JOSEPH CATTIN

ROUGE Pinot Noir STEINBACH - 2010

This rich and full-bodied red wine is produced in the far south of Alsace, in the village of Steinbach, historically renowned for its high quality Pinot Noir (formerly called "Steinbacher Roda", meaning Red [Wine] from Steinbach). With the right ripeness, this wine offers an excellent ageing potential.

Region

Alsace.

The vineyard is located in Steinbach, in southern Alsace. The vines are planted on south-east exposed slopes.

Soil

Sandstone and Ferruginous soil.

Varietal

Pinot Noir

AOC

Alsace

Farming

Sustainable practices.

Grapes are handpicked.

Winemaking

Maceration at least for 10 days at approximately 20°C. Alcoholic and malolactic fermentations. Maturing in oak barrels for at least 15 months.

Tasting notes

Color: Intense red.

Nose: Intense black cherry and red berry fruits.

Palate: Full-bodied and well-balanced. The acidity of 2010 vintage brings a hint of freshness to this rich and complex wine.

Serving suggestion:

Steinbach Pinot Noir pairs very well with red meats, game and strong cheeses. It is also delicious with lamb.

Serving temperature: around 16°C .

Ageing: remarkable ageing potential, at least 10 years.